

Bryan Caswell

Food & Wine Best New Chef and James Beard Finalist, Bryan Caswell was born in Louisiana, raised in Houston and is now one of the most influential chefs in Texas.

Chef Bryan Caswell is a true Southerner who was born in Lafayette, LA and spent most of his youth hunting, boating and fishing along the Gulf Coast.

Bryan competed on season 3 of Food Network's The Next Iron Chef and has appeared on numerous television shows including Bizarre Foods, Top Chef: Texas, Simply Ming, and The Today Show.

Houston's culinary scene was immediately elevated with the opening of Bryan's first restaurant, Reef. Open since 2007, REEF has received rave reviews from critics and helped Bryan earn several prominent culinary awards.

Awards

- Food & Wine "Best New Chef", 2009
- Bon Appetit "Best Seafood Restaurant" (REEF), 2009
- Semifinalist James Beard Foundation "Best Chef: Southwest", 2010 & 2011
- StarChefs "Rising Star Restaurateur", 2011

Restaurants

- Reef
- Little Bigs
- El Real Original Tex-Mex
- Four Units in Minute Maid Park
- Third Bar, IAH Jackson Street
- BBQ

Social Media

-  @WholeFish 1.9k
-  @WholeFish 6.5k